

1st International Conference on eParticipation ePart 2009

within the DEXA conference cluster
Linz (Austria), September 1 - 3, 2009

Workshop 2

“Demonstrating eParticipation Projects: Platforms and Pilots Evaluation”

Tuesday, 1st September 2009

Purpose of the Workshop

The workshop aims at bringing together eParticipation researchers and stimulating discussion among representatives of Enterprises, Governments and European Commission on the practical achievements and current challenges of electronic participation research. To achieve the above goal, the first part of the workshop will be given to real-life demonstrations and cases analysis, accompanied by additional relevant contributions from other international research projects, whereas the second part will be dedicated to general policy making and eParticipation issues that formulate the future landscape of the domain.

Agenda

PART A – eParticipation Pilots (14:00-15:30)

- Yannis Charalabidis: “Introduction to the Workshop - eParticipation Systems and Platforms: Past, Present and Future Dimensions”, National Technical University of Athens
- Sabrina Scherer: “Giving People Voices in EU legislation: The VoicE and Voices Platform”, University Koblenz-Landau
- Sotiris Koussouris: “eParticipation Systems for Cross-Societal Deliberation using GIS systems: Project FEED”, National Technical University of Athens
- Konstantinos Parisopoulos: “Using Argument Visualisation to make EU Legislation more Transparent: the WAVE approach”, University of Macedonia.
- Fenareti Lampathaki: “Strengthening and Encouraging Citizens’ Participation in Decision Making via ePetitions: the eMPower project”, National Technical University of Athens

PART B – eParticipation and Policy Modelling (16:00-17:30)

- Fenareti Lampathaki: “Citizens Collaboration and Co-Creation in Public Service Delivery”, National Technical University of Athens
- Yannis Chralabidis: “Policy Gadgets Mashing Underlying Group Knowledge in Web 2.0”, National Technical University of Athens
- Maria Wimmer: “Open Collaboration for Policy Modelling based on future scenarios”, University Koblenz-Landau
- Sotiris Koussouris: “Designing a Participative Research Roadmap for Electronic Governance and Policy Modelling”, National Technical University of Athens
- Discussion: New Challenges and Directions in eGovernance

Workshop Organisation

Yannis Charalabidis, National Technical University of Athens, Greece

Euripidis Loukis, University of the Aegean, Greece

Maria Wimmer, University of Koblenz-Landau, Germany